

Thank you for your interest in pursuing an internship with Dream Centers of Colorado Springs!
We look forward to exploring this opportunity with you.

The Women's Clinic offers a master's level counseling internship. At this time, we do not offer medical internships or preceptorships due to limited staff capacity.

Please use the link below to indicate your interest in a counseling internship. Submission of this form will generate an informational interview. If we are a good fit for you, we will advance to our vetting process which includes a volunteer application, references, and background check.
